Shuster Congratulates Congressional Art Competition Winner

Jane Hallinan of Altoona Area High School Wins Contest

Washington, D.C. – Congressman Bill Shuster is pleased to announce the winner of the 2009 Congressional Art Competition. This year’s winner is Jane Hallinan from Altoona Area High School. Jane won for her mixed media collage entitled “Baker Mansion Blooms.”

“I want to congratulate Jane for her great work in creating this collage,” Shuster said. “Her piece is a creative depiction of Baker Mansion and will serve as a wonderful exhibition of Blair County and its rich history.”

“Baker Mansion Blooms” will proudly represent the 9th District in Washington, DC and will be admired by thousands of tourists and staff members who will see it in the Capitol Complex over the year.

Jane Hallinan will be invited to attend a Congressional Art Competition Reception in Washington, DC on June 24th and her winning entry will be showcased in the Capitol Complex soon after.
